East of England Regional Executive Member

- I would bring something different as I have not previously been involved in any function of the party.
- I have been a party member at various times for over 30 years and I feel I can add value behind the scenes.
- I want a Lib Dem Government and want to make a difference.

Paul Johnson